

How to complete questionnaire

Main Researcher:

A person, who guides, directs and organizes the research group (team) in the project and undertakes handling the project based on the pre-determined description of services.

Project Manager:

A person who guides and directs the executive teams in the production project and in legal terms, he should be responsible for any issues relevant to the quality and scheduling of project.

Research System:

A governmental or non-governmental research organization (university or non-university) that has offered the project and undertakes the entire legal responsibilities during proposal and execution of project.

Executive System:

This includes concerned units of the Ministry of Agricultural Jihad, the representative of which has appeared at the Committee for Developing Research Management of Lime Witches Broom and has already declared concerned axis to the Committee.

The Representative of Executive System/Representative of Research System: This is the highest rank or the fully authorized representative of the System who is the signatory to sign the entire documents of project, including binding and non-binding papers before concerned parties.

Overhead costs:

For any confirmed projects (except those defined by natural persons), after finalization of cost analysis, maximum twenty percent of the total cost will be added to the total value of project as overhead costs (for overhead costs, insurance and tax).

Abstract of Project:

Abstract of project includes explanations on the necessity to handle the project, the goal of project execution, research methodology and procedures and in particular, results which are expected in executing the project (approaches and output of project in terms of scientific and applied use).

Reasons in defining the project (Problem description and the necessity)

- The exact goal (goals) underlying the project handling (what part of the defined issue (problem) could be specifically solved by executing this project?)
- Specifications/particulars of the project employer (proposing party)

- Research methodology
- Past history and records of handling the project in Iran through careful explanations of the resources, advantages and differences with this project:
- Past history and records of handling the project in world through careful explanations of the resources, advantages and differences with this project:
- Cases of applied use of the results of project (along with the specifications of users and methods of using the results):
- Is there any need to handle supplementary projects that aim at making the results more applicable, after completion of the present project?
- (Name the titles of supplementary projects with explanations).
- Prediction of the documents resulted from research findings
- ISI paper
- Presenting the results in international conferences as paper
- Presenting results in the national conferences as paper
- Presenting scientific reports on the project

Expected results:

Present the results in following tables carefully and by classification

No. Scientific and basic results

No. Specific applied results

Specialized fields of the project

Full title of the core the project is defined along it.

Relationship of subject of project and the aforementioned axis

Central Committee:

The Committee for Developing Research Management of Lime Witches Broom - Ministry of Jihad Agriculture.